GRILL COMBO

STEAK GRILLING GUIDELINES

No matter how you enjoy your steak, you can expect the finest quality cuts, expertly prepared and seasoned to enhance the natural flavours of our premium beef. Enjoy your meal, and savour every bite!

Blue | The epitome of rareness. A blue steak is seared quickly on high heat, leaving the inside cool and practically raw. It's a carnivore's delight with a delicate, almost sashimi-like centre.

Rare | Tender, warm and glowing red on the inside, seared for slightly longer with some juices flowing.

Medium Rare | Our most popular choice! A medium rare steak is seared to perfection, creating a caramelised exterior while maintaining a warm, red-pink centre. It's the ideal balance between flavour and tenderness.

Medium | A medium steak is cooked through a bit more, resulting in a warm, pinkish-brown centre. It's a great option for those who enjoy a meaty taste with a hint of pinkness.

Medium Well | If you prefer your steak with only a slight pink centre, our medium well option is the way to go. The searing process is extended further, creating a tender, light pink interior.

Well Done | For those who appreciate a thoroughly cooked steak. It's cooked through and through, with no trace of pinkness. It's juicy, flavourful, and perfect for those who like their steak fully done.
